

Buckinghamshire College Group

A Professional Sales Apprenticeship will help you make a start in one of the most exciting, and potentially best paid, careers around.

So why be a sales apprentice?

You'll have a real job and qualifications employers want, with no fees or debts.

A smarter way to a brighter future.

What will you be doing this time next year?

With an Apprenticeship in sales, you'll be qualified, employed and earning.

You will have a real job, right now.

You'll be able to pay your own way, and you'll have a real impact in a company that wants you to move forward in your career.

You'll get qualifications employers want and you'll learn a lot about business which you can use to boost your CV.

Everything you learn can be applied straight away at work.

Interested? Contact Tim Anderson on 07970 190802

So how does it work?

- Our recruitment team assess whether you have the potential to succeed in your apprenticeship. If you pass our screening, we'll then match you with local employers and help you secure your job.
- You'll start on an apprentice salary*, plus your travel expenses** to Buckinghamshire College Group for group workshops once a month. After that it depends on how much effort and enthusiasm you put in.
- Once you complete the qualification, you'll be in a great position to start earning even more money.
- You will work within your placement company for up to 12 months.
- Mentoring and Work Assessment Support is provided your tutor, your line manager, and by attending monthly workshops at the College and completing e-learning modules associated with the BTEC qualification.
- Your Sales Apprenticeship training and qualifications are designed to help you do the job your employer expects from you. They are recognised throughout the industry and will look great on your CV.

About your qualification

MAS04953: Sales & Telesales Intermediate Apprenticeship (SASW)
Level 3 NVQ Certificate and Diploma in Sales
BTEC Level 3 Certificate in Principles of Sales (QCF)

This qualification is a component of the Level 3 Sales Apprenticeship framework.

Support is also provided for candidates to achieve and Employment
Rights & Responsibilities and Functional Skills in Maths and English where applicable.

*. Please refer to the National Apprenticeships website for the latest guidance.

** We strongly encourage employers to cover apprentices' travel expenses for when they attend the college, but this is not guaranteed.