

APPOINTMENT OF NEW MEMBERS TO THE CORPORATION BOARD

PERSON SPECIFICATION

In considering individuals for potential membership of the Corporation, the Search and Development Committee will seek:

- Eligibility as stated in the Instrument and Articles (see eligibility form).
- Knowledge and experience relevant to the duties and responsibilities of the Board and to the work of at least one of its Committees.
- Knowledge and experience that is complementary or additional to that already available to the Board through its current membership.
- Knowledge of local educational, community, social or business conditions.
- Availability and willingness to attend meetings of the Board and at least one of its Committees on a regular basis amounting to approximately 12 meetings per annum of approximately 2 hours' duration.
- Commitment to attend training and development events.
- Commitment to the College's mission, role and corporate aims.
- Commitment to education and training.
- Ability to:
 - absorb complex information and use it when arriving at decisions
 - marshal arguments
 - communicate clearly
 - demonstrate respect for views of others
 - maintain commitment to the Nolan Committee's 'Seven Principles of Public Life': Selflessness, Integrity, Objectivity, Accountability, Openness, Honesty and Leadership.
- Acceptance of fiduciary duty and responsibilities.
- Acceptance of and commitment to equal opportunities and diversity.
- Absence of commitment to any organisation in direct competition with the College.